ANOTHER WIN FOR TRANCE.

HOLDS FITZ HERBERT SAFE ALL THE WAY IN THE BOUQUET STAKES.

Roseben Delights His Admirers by Winning in Easy Fashion and Talk of a Match with Jack Atkin Follows.

New York, May 20.—Roseben got into the limelight again today by winning the six furlongs handicap, which began proceedings at Belmont Park, and threatens now to be a rival of Jack Atkin for the sprinting premiership. He carried 140 pounds and, although there was little of note among those behind the son of Ben Strome, he ran as if he had suddenly regained his best form in spite of his previous showing this season. The track was deep in slop from the hard rain of the early morning and this may partially account for Roseben's improvement. At any rate, he dashed into the lead right after the start and not only held it at all times, but won in an easy gallop, very much after the fashion in which he used to squander the best sprinters. At no time was he really doing his best. His victory was immensely popular. The horse was well supported by the smart players, while it was said that D. C. Johnson, his owner, won a sum sufficient to more than cover all previous losses on the horse this year.

Johnson has never lost faith in Roseben, although he could not account for his loss of form this spring and after today's race expressed his willingness to match Roseben against Jack Atkin at six furlongs, the race to be run at Sheepshead Bay and the horses to carry weight for age. He is firm in the belief that Roseben can beat Schreiber's crack and if such a race could be arranged, Johnson would back his horse to the limit. Because of Jack Atkin's great race yesterday and Roseben's apparent return to form today, the weights for the Claremont Handicap, which appeared today, are interesting. The race, which is at six and a half furlongs, will be run Friday and Mr. Vosburgh has put 142 pounds on Jack Atkin, while Roseben gets in under 124. However, Roseben will have to pick up five pounds penalty for his victory today.

Trance and Fitz Herbert met again today in the Bouquet Stakes and Trance clearly proved her superiority. The race was between the two and Trance always had a shade the best of the argument. She won by a narrow margin only, but had something in reserve, while Fitz Herbert was under punishment for the last furlong. Trance is a fine filly and probably the equal of any two-year-old yet shown. This was her sixth winning race since Aqueduct's opening, including a dead heat with Fitz Herbert.

The condensed history of the Bouquet Stakes since 1900 is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1900	Educate	94	J. Slack	$1,775	:59
1901	Misleader	107	Bullman	1,545	1:01
1902	Sergeant	106	T. Burns	1,885	:59½
1903	Race King	99	Fuller	2,040	:59⅖
1904	Gold Ten	99	Hildebrand	1,770	1:01⅗
1905	Anodyne	94	Baird	1,850	1:01
1906	McCarter	97	W. Miller	1,995	1:00
1907	Ella O'Neill	94	Notter	2,095	1:00
1908	Trance	109	Musgrave	1,895	1:09

J. A. Bennet showed a smart youngster in Uncle Jim, winner of the second race, in which he beat the Madden entry, Sir Martin and Edward, Turncoat, said to be one of the good ones from the Keene barn, and others of fair class. Uncle Jim was easily best and fairly ran away from his opponents in the stretch. He is a Futurity candidate.

Berkeley kept up his winning streak by taking the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth from Colonel Jack and Salvidere. Berkeley is one of the most improved horses in training and just now holds a high place among the second-raters.

The news from Albany is that the legislature will either adjourn or take a recess next week without action or even a recommendation on the race track bill. Foelker, the sick senator, cannot attend the session for several weeks, and the senators who are in Albany without pay and on their own expenses say that they will not remain indefinitely just to please the governor.

Entries for the Saratoga stakes which closed Monday, while considerably below the average of former years from the standpoint of numbers, include all the best horses in training. Colin is in the Great Republic, Saratoga Handicap and Cup, as are Ballot and Celt. Hessian is in these events also and others. Sam Hildreth is the heaviest nominator with Montgomery, Uncle, Meelick and Tony Faust in all of the principal events. Others eligible for the big fixtures are: Fountainblue, Running Water, Robert Cooper, Salvidere, McCarter, Nealon, Charles Edward, Flip Flap, Timber and Dr. Gardner. It is rather surprising, however, to find that the only engagements made for Jack Atkin were the Great Republic at one mile and a quarter and the Saratoga Cup at one mile and three-quarters. The nominators to the Saratoga Special are: August Belmont, one subscription; James R. Keene, two; J. B. Brady, one; F. A. Forsythe, one; R. T. Wilson, Jr., one; John Sanford, one; J. E. Madden, three; F. R. Hitchcock, one; H. P. Whitney, two, and H. B. Duryea, one.

IMPROVEMENTS AT FORT ERIE TRACK.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 20.—Superintendent Myer, in charge of the work of improvement at the Fort Erie track, stated that he had at present about forty men at work, but this force will probably soon be increased to 100 or over, as the improvements that are planned and will involve a tremendous amount of work if they are to be done by the time the meeting opens, July 27. It is said that fully $40,000 will be spent on the property this year. Outside of the improvements to the track itself one of the most important changes will be made in front of the grandstand, where an immense granolithic pavement will be laid. A wide granolithic walk is also to be laid from the gates to the Grand Trunk tracks. This walk will be covered the entire distance, which feature will no doubt be greatly appreciated by patrons on rainy days.

"RED" WALKER TO STAY IN THE WEST.

"Red" Walker will not come east to race this year. Some members of his family are far from well, "the glorious climate" suits him, and he will stay there, though his stable will campaign at Seattle this summer. It will be a pretty shifty one. Its stars will be Gemmell, Centre Shot, Stanley Fay and Edwin Gum. It is likely that Gemmell will be much improved and more consistent horse in Walker's hands, though during the present Oakland meeting Gemmell has won half the races in which he started. His Oakland doings in figures make this showing:

Sts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Unp.	Amt.Won.
28	11	6	3	2	$7,245

MARSTER BREAKS A LEG AND IS SLAIN.

Dream of His Owner Is Strangely Fulfilled—Favorites Have a Day at Oakland.

Oakland, Cal., May 20.—Marster, the heavily backed odds-on favorite in today's feature race at Oakland, broke his left hind leg during the running of that race and was subsequently destroyed. The accident occurred on the first turn and in full view of the 5,000 spectators present. J. J. Walsh had unavailingly importuned McDaniel, the trainer, to scratch Marster because of a dream during the night before that his horse had broken a leg while at exercise. McDaniel, being aware of the disability of Cabin, the most formidable contender, and the certainty that he would be withdrawn from the race on account of a cracked heel, refused to entertain the proposition, assuring his employer that the race was a gift for their good Fatherless gelding.

After the elimination of the favorite, Avontellus, the third choice, went on and won easily from Cadichon and Spring Ban. Kent, who rode the winner, was adjudged guilty of foul riding and suspended for the remainder of the meeting.

The card was unusually attractive and with the successes of four favorites, race-goers enjoyed a profitable afternoon's wagering and the ring experienced one of its worst days of the season.

A. Walsh again captured the jockey honors with two wins and one second.

Colonel Applegate, who has a five-year-contract on this good youngster, will send him to New York to ride during the summer instead of to Seattle, as at first contemplated. Walsh is sixteen years of age and can ride at eighty-eight pounds.

The Fleur de Lis Stable has been strengthened by the acquisition of the mare, Fantastic, which left for Seattle with the other horses in the string today.

Massa, recently injured in a race, will recover.

It is thought that Centre Shot, which bled in her last start, will also be able to race effectively again.

THIRTY LEADING OWNERS.

A Missouri man, B. Schreiber, of Woodlands, is now securely intrenched in the proud position of leader among American owners, and has simply distanced his nearest competitor. But a new owner is beginning to creep up in the list, and when Colin, Celt, Ballot and the other real stars of the Keene Stable get into action in the great stakes of the year, it will take more than doughty Jack Atkin to maintain the present leader's supremacy. In the meantime, here is how the thirty leaders rank:

RACE TRACK PLANNED FOR JUAREZ, MEXICO.

Matt J. Winn, manager of the Churchill Downs race course, is said to have been offered the general managership of a new track planned for Juarez, Mexico. The undertaking is in the hands of Texans who are willing to spend $150,000 to equip a track across the border from El Paso. Mr. Winn does not think favorably of the project.

FASTEST MILES RUN TO DATE THIS YEAR.

Twenty-Seven Races Run in 1:39 or Better, of Which Nearly All Were at Santa Anita.

Although the racing year is young a mile in 1:39 or better has already been covered twenty-seven times, this unusual record for so early in a year's campaigning being due to the exceedingly fast Santa Anita track. Twenty-two of the twenty-seven records were scored over it, ranging from the 1:37⅘ of Rifleman and Rapid Water to the 1:39 of Timothy Wen, Edwin T. Fryer, Sidney F., Chalfonte, Sink Spring and Daruma, none of which, except possibly Sidney F. and Daruma, could run so fast over any other track in the country. In the course of the first Santa Anita Park meeting the record of 1:39 or faster was made thirty times. In this feature Belmont Park leads with thirty-one races, and Sheepshead Bay is third with twenty-six, but their records are the accumulated product of years of racing, and there is no doubt that the Santa Anita track is the fastest in the United States.

When the weather grows hot the cracks of the year are in action and the eastern tracks are at their best, more rapidly run miles will go on record. At present the showing of 1908 in that respect is as follows:

Horse.	A.	Wt.	Track.	Date.	Time.
Timothy Wen	4	104	Santa Anita	Jan. 4	1:39
Chippewa	5	95	Santa Anita	Jan. 6	1:38⅘

CANADA'S MOST IMPORTANT RACE.

So far as sentiment is concerned, the King's Plate is not only the foremost race of the Toronto spring meeting, but of the Canadian turf as well. As the Queen's Plate this race was contested annually from 1860 down to and including 1901 and has been the King's Plate since the accession of King Edward to the throne of Great Britain. The statement that it is the oldest turf fixture run continuously on this continent is therefore correct and all the glamor of history attaches to the event.

From its institution in 1860 to 1886 inclusive, the distance was a mile and a half. From 1887 to this time it has been a mile and a quarter. Its first running in 1860 took place at Carleton, now Toronto Junction. In its early history it had no definitely fixed place of running, having been contested at Carleton, Guelf, London, Hamilton, St. Catherine, Newmarket, Whitby, Kingston, Ottawa, Barrie, Woodstock, Prescott and Picton before finding a permanent home at Woodbine Park. At the latter track it was first run in 1876, but it was not until 1883 that it became located there for good. It takes its name from its annual gift of fifty guineas from King Edward. Aside from this it has a generous endowment from the Ontario Jockey Club. It is an event for Canadian-bred horses exclusively and is for three-year-olds and over.

The winners of the race from 1860 down have been Don Juan, Wild Irishman, Palermo, Touchstone, Brunette, Lady Norfolk, Beacon, Wild Rose, Nettie, Bay Jack, John Bell, Floss, Fearnaught, Mignonette, Swallow, Trumpeter, Norah P., Amelia, King George, Moss Rose, Bonnie Bird, Vice Chancellor, Fanny Wiser, Roddy Pringle, Williams, Willie W., Wild Rose II., Bonnie Duke, Harry Cooper, Colonist, Kitestring, Victorious, O'Donohue, Martello, Joe Miller, Bonniefield, Millbrook, Ferdinand, Bon Ino, Butterscotch, Dalmoor, John Ruskin, Lyddite, Thessalon, Sapper, Inferno, Slaughter and Kelvin. Of the winners in comparatively recent years, Mr. J. E. Seagram has, including his first success in 1891, won the event no less than twelve times, a decidedly monopolistic record.

The race of this year has for some time past been much discussed in Canadian turf circles, but, contrary to the practice in the past, there has been but little ante-post betting. Twenty-three horses are eligible, the majority being likely to start. They are the following:

GOOD DAY AT LOUISVILLE

FINE WEATHER AND AN IMPROVING TRACK BRING OUT A BIG CROWD.

Kercheval Defeats Lotus Eater and Lens in an Excellent Race—Through Accidents McAllister Wins the Louisville Steeplechase.

Louisville, May 20.—Clear warm weather, the first in several days, and a good program, drew out a banner attendance to Churchill Downs this afternoon. The Louisville Steeplechase Stakes, over the full course, and The Cotton Seed Crushers' Handicap at a mile and a sixteenth, were the features. The former resulted in a good bit of a farce, as McAllister was the only one to go the course without mishaps. Seven were originally carded to start, but only three accepted the issue. McAllister was at all times the choice in the speculation. He allowed Don Jolly to lead on sufferance until over the seventh jump, where the latter went down. At that point Bell-the-Cat, the other starter, was striding well, but at the water jump he also came to grief, leaving McAllister to canter home unattended. Don Jolly and Bell-the-Cat were remounted and taken over the course for second and third money. Pierce, Don Jolly's original rider, piloted him home, but McClain was knocked out and a stable hand, named P. Jordan, weighing much in excess of the 143 pounds Bell-the-Cat was listed to carry, took the mount and barely managed to get him home inside of the specified three-minute time limit to gain third money.

The tabulated history of the Louisville Steeplechase Handicap is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	A.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1903	Dr. Nowlin	6	140	McAuliffe	$1,015	3:55
1904	Presgrave	6	165	T. McHugh	1,275	3:59
1905	Rip	6	158	McAuliffe	1,055	4:05
1906	Manners	5	137	Henry	1,430	3:52
1907	St. Volma	4	164	Archibald	1,105	3:56⅗
1908	McAllister	4	158	E. Heider	980	4:15

The handicap brought about a rattling good contest, Kercheval being the winner, but only after he had put up the race of his career. He was badly outpaced in the early running, seemingly on account of the cuppy going, but once fully settled in his stride after going a half, closed a tremendous gap and, responding willingly to Powers' strong urging, nailed Lotus Eater at the end. Lotus Eater had been in close attendance on the speedy Zal for the first three-quarters and when the latter tired took a lead that made him appear a certain winner, but he could not withstand Kercheval's final rush. Lens, running in improved form, finished third. The race was somewhat marred by a mishap to The Minks. He was caught in the barrier and was forced to carry the webbing for nearly five furlongs before his rider could free him from it. This caused him to lose much ground and eventually to finish outside of the money. Zal showed plenty of early speed, but quit badly after going something over three-quarters.

The opening race went to She Wolf, an outsider, Powers, using alert tactics, got her away from the post in a rush and she led throughout.

The largest field of starters during the meeting went in the second race and Stoner Hill, having the most racing luck, won in handy fashion over Meadowbreeze.

Bonebrake was best of a bad band that contested in the third and beat the long-priced Canopian.

The closing race went to Hostile Hyphen, which drew the record sale of mutuel tickets of the meeting, excepting on the Kentucky Derby starters.

Speculation today exceeded the Derby day record and almost amounted to the total of last Saturday, which established a record for the meeting. Fully 300 members of the Cotton Seed Crushers were in attendance at the track and were extended the courtesy of the clubhouse.

James Blute stated today that he was forced to leave Halket in the east on account of his being sick. He was intended as a starter in the Latonia Derby, but it is thought he will not round to in time.

J. K. Frayling will campaign a string of W. Gerst's horses in Canada this summer. They will be shipped from here after the close of the meeting.

A number of race followers will depart for Toronto tonight. Among the stables to be shipped are those of C. Pangritz, W. G. King-Dodds and S. Louis. Fred Cook and several bookmakers will leave for Woodbine tomorrow.

Mortiboy had to be excused from starting in the fifth race on account of colic.

DEATH OF A PROMINENT TURF OFFICIAL.

John H. Bradford, Treasurer of the Jockey Club, Carried Off by Pneumonia.

New York, May 20.—John H. Bradford, one of the organizers and the treasurer of the Coney Island Jockey Club and treasurer of the Jockey Club since its organization, died this morning at his home in this city. Mr. Bradford caught cold at Belmont Park last Friday and Tuesday pneumonia developed. His physical condition was not such as to enable him to withstand the disease and the end came peacefully just before noon today.

Mr. Bradford was not only one of the most prominent racing men in New York state, but one of the most popular as well. He represented the interests of W. K. Vanderbilt in the Coney Island Jockey Club and the liberal and progressive spirit this association has always shown, was the result of his devotion to the sport and his aim to put it on the highest plane. His latest work in this line was the reconstruction of the Sheepshead Bay course at a cost of $150,000, which has just been completed. Although in ill-health and a practical cripple for the last dozen years, he rarely missed a day at the track and it was his untiring devotion to the sport that hurried his death.

Mr. Bradford would have been sixty-five years old next September. He leaves a widow and one son, J. H. Bradford, Jr. His wife was a Miss Phipps, of Cincinnati, and the body will be taken to the Ohio city for interment. His death cast a gloom over the proceedings at the track today and the flags were at half-mast in respect to his memory. His death is a big loss to the turf.

SCHREIBER'S EXTENSIVE LAND HOLDINGS.

Barney Schreiber, who already owns some 1,000 acres of land in the Woodlands Farm and other parcels he has picked up from time to time in its vicinity, has taken an option on the J. D. Patten Farm near by and is likely to buy the place. It contains some 300 acres. Schreiber is having a good season all around, and deserves it. His judgment, courage and industry are all far above the ordinary.

TWO FAMOUS BOOKMAKING LEVIATHANS.

How Harry Hill Got His First Stake—Enormous Transactions of Davis.

Writing of two of the big-gun bookmakers of England eighty years ago, "Thormanby" spins the following interesting yarn in the London Sportsman:

"I write of the 'pencilers' of a time within the recollection of many living veterans of sport. And I give first place to Harry Hill. From the humble position of 'boots' at a Manchester hotel, Hill rose to the highest position on the turf as a commissioner—a man who made his $50,000 book regularly on every big event during the year. His own story of his first slice of luck was the following:

"He attended Doncaster to see the Cup run for one year, and without much trouble got rid of all his 'brass' except about five shillings, which, though not enough to pay his fare by coach back to Manchester, was still enough to take him there by more humble conveyance, namely, the wagon and walking. While on shanks' pony, by which he meant to go as far as Thurlstone, he missed his road just after he had crossed the Dearn River, and on stopping at a small cottage to inquire his way, noticed a window in which a square had been stopped up with the manuscript copy of an old ballad in order to keep out the draughts, while the pane next to it had been strengthened by pasting on it a £20 Bank of England note.

"The aged couple to whom the cottage belonged, did not know the value of the piece of paper they had used for so common a purpose; in fact, they could neither read nor write, and so Hill had little difficulty in buying 'the picture' found months before on the high road for half-a-crown. Again in for funds, he, like Whittington, 'turned' back on his footsteps, invested part of his windfall on the next day's events, was fortunate on that and the other days as well, and cleared altogether over $400. To his credit, be it said, he repaid the old folk$ the $100.

"It was Lord George Bentinck who gave him the first 'leg-up' which enabled him to make a name and fortune on the turf. Lord George took a liking to the slangy and illiterate ex-'boots,' and, seeing that he possessed exceptional shrewdness and business capacity, entrusted Hill with his commissions. From that moment Harry's fortune was made. His first grand coup was when Bloomsbury won the Derby in the historical snowstorm of 1839. Harry made a large sum by that event, and through a dispute over the race attracted the attention of Baron Martin, who afterward became one of his fastest friends. But Hill, with that shrewd common sense which was the most salient point of his character, always stuck to Lord George, and executed for that famous statesman some of the largest commissions ever entrusted to an agent, as, for instance, when Miss Elis won the Goodwood Cup, Lord George Bentinck's claim was $85,000, every penny of which was collected by Hill and paid over, whilst, at the same time, he landed a good sum for himself. At Newmarket, when given the Gaper commission for the Derby, within two hours he got on for his lordship $225,000, and this sum before many days were over, he increased to $500,000. This brought Gaper to 5 to 1, and so anxious was Lord George to win that he was heard to say, 'Egad. I'd feed Gaper on gold from henceforth if that would insure his victory.' But the 'Napolean of the turf' was destined never to achieve the great ambition of his life, besides which all the prizes of the world were valueless in his eyes, the 'Blue Riband of the turf.' Gaper came in fourth, but his owner's pecuniary losses were not heavy, as by John Scott's persuasion he had hedged his money, and won $15,000 on Cotherstone, the winner.

"Though Hill managed in one way or another to accumulate a colossal fortune, he never aped the swell; though he kept a fine house he never desired to be a country gentleman, like Gully; a town magnifico, like Padwick or Swindell, who, however, were money lenders first and bookmakers afterward. He was rather of the Jem Bland order, especially in his love for low company. No amount of money or intercourse with good-class men could wean him from the tastes of his early days—the inn-yard and the tap-room; and he was never so much at home as when, attired in his invariable suit of ill-fitting, rusty black, which looked as if it had been made for his grandfather; his grimy, hard-looking face lit up with a grin, he presided at the head of a table, surrounded by ostlers, jockeys and the nondescripts of the turf, from which he himself had sprung. Here he was king; everybody roared at his queer stories, and the louder they roared the more drinks he stood. Most of his evenings, especially after he had retired from bookmaking, were spent at the Coach and Horses in Dover street, Piccadilly. He died a wretched, blind old man, in 1880, and left no will. The only property he was known to be possessed of was Ackworth Park, which he had purchased from Gully. What became of all the rest of his wealth remains, I believe, to this day a mystery.

"Another famous bookmaker of the highest type was 'Leviathan' Davis. Like most other famous betting men, Davis was a self-made man. He began life as a carpenter and joiner in the employ of Messrs. Cubbitt & Co., the well-known contractors. It was as a backer that he made his first great coup. He stood Sir Tatton Sykes for the Two Thousand Guineas of 1846 and won such a pot of money that he was able to give up carpentering and set up regularly in business as a professional betting man. As Davis' customers became more and more numerous he was pestered out of his life by the endless string of questions he was constantly called upon to answer as to the prices of individual horses in the betting market. This interfered greatly with the booking of the bets, and at last a happy thought suggested itself by which he might save himself the trouble of answering queries and devote himself entirely to doing business. He would have all the prices written out, tabulated, and hung up where every one could consult them. This was the origin of the famous betting lists which were in vogue in London until the Act of 1853 suppressed them.

"The first of these lists of Davis' was hung in the Durham Arms, Serle street, Lincoln's Inn Fields, and so enormous was the trade which it brought to the house that in a few years the buxom landlady retired in possession of a very handsome fortune. The second list was posted at Barr's, in Long Acre, and there Davis and his clerks might have been seen standing behind big bankers' ledgers entering the bets as fast as their pens could go. So safe and sound was Davis by this time that one of his winning tickets was always considered everywhere as negotiable as a Bank of England note.

"Strange to say, Davis was singularly unlucky in his books on the Derby and Oaks, though on the first-named he sometimes made one as high as $50,000. His first heavy hit is said to have been for $60,000 over The Cur for the Cesarewitch; but it was with the Derby that his worst reverses were associated. He was $250,000 to the bad over The Flying Dutchman, and he had three terrible years running—1849, 1850 and 1851. Probably a quarter of a million would hardly have covered his losses on the Epsom victories of Voltigeur, Daniel O'Rourke and Teddington. Perhaps the worst blow of the three was the triumph of Sir Joseph Hawley's horse. It was, as Argus said at the time, 'a blow that struck him between wind and water.' But he 'took no more notice of it than he was wont to do of his washing bill, although his losses were estimated at $500,000, paying them with as much indifference as the London and Westminster Bank would have done.' Amongst others to whom he had lost large sums was Mr. Charles Greville, whose posthumous 'Memoirs' are the most famous chronique scandaleuse of our time; and Mr. Greville was somewhat surprised, and perhaps a good deal more rejoiced, to receive on the morning of the Oaks a check for $75,000 from Mr. Davis. It was a judicious act of promptitude, for it at once put an end to all suspense on the part of those who were looking forward with some nervousness to settling day, and it stamped Davis 'as a very mine of Peru.'

"But he had his revenge in the autumn, when Mrs. Taft and Truth amply recouped him for his summer losses, the two of them probably bringing him in $250,000. After his winter Derby deposits came in he was supposed to have entered on his 1852 campaign with $650,000 at the London and Westminster Bank, the heads of which establishment, it is said, 'would rise to accommodate him at any hour of the night.' That statement, however, must, I think, be taken with a grain of salt. At this point of his career Davis fairly deserved his title of 'Leviathan,' for he conducted his business on a scale never known before. He resembled, in fact, Captain O'Kelly in his zenith, who, when he was asked, after taking a heavy bet, where his estates lay, responded, 'By the powers, I hev the map o' them about me,' and produced a perfect roll of bank notes; or the old miser near Doncaster, who went to a great land sale in his filthy rags and a hay band around his waist, and astonished the auctioneer, who wondered where the deposit was to come from, by holding up a $500,000 bank note (one of the few ever made), and saying, 'Here's the cock; I've got the old hen at home.' Henceforward the tide of ill luck always flowed steadily against him at Epsom. Daniel O'Rourke is said to have cost him $50 000, Catherine Hayes cost him about the same, and West Australian $240,000, of which $150,000 went in a check to Mr. Bowes.

"On the St. Leger and at post betting the 'Leviathan' was uniformly lucky. He had a great fancy, too, for backing riders, and there his good fortune was amazing. Indeed, at one time, he preferred backing jockeys to backing horses. Fordham, or 'The Kid,' as he always called him, was Davis' particular favorite, and so highly did he think both of George's luck and horsemanship that he often declined to lay against one of 'The Kid's' mounts. Like a good many other bookmakers, Davis was no great judge of a horse—in fact, could hardly tell a good one from a bad one when they were standing still—but he had a marvelously keen eye for detecting when they were in trouble, and would keep on betting until they were twenty yards from the post, and if it were a very near thing after they had passed it.

"I never heard of his nerve failing but once, and that was when Bon Mot won the Liverpool Cup. He was just beginning to fire heavily into this strange 3,000-guinea imposter when he found himself compelled, in consequence of a nervous headache, to close his book and sit down, and, as luck would have it, he won $15,000 instead of losing nearly twice that amount.

"But the incident was of more serious import than he or anyone else imagined. He had laid heavily against Essedarius for the Cup, and the anxiety affected his mind. He entirely lost his head, and became so alarmed lest he should be unable to pay his losses that his health broke down and on the morning of the race he looked the mere wreck of his former self. The victory of the little Irish outsider, Bon Mot, had the effect of a restorative, but Davis knew that he had had a warning, and that the ceaseless anxieties of his business were beginning to tell upon him. He was no longer the man he was when, after Flying Dutchman's Derby, he paid away almost every penny of his capital with the calmness of a stoic. Although he had an iron constitution and the lungs of a Stentor, his strength was unequal to the tremendous and barrassing strain which his immense business threw upon him incessantly, and he had the good sense to lay down his pencil forever at the end of the season of 1857. On the Friday in the Houghton meeting of that year he retired into private life, taking with him not only the handsome fortune which he had gained by his own skill and energy, but also the respect, esteem and good wishes of all who had ever had any dealings with him."

BUTTE'S EXCELLENT STAKE NOMINATIONS.

It is quite evident the Butte meeting, which will open June 27 and continue to September 4, cannot very well fail to be characterized by excellent racing. A large proportion of the best horses raced at Oakland and Santa Anita last winter have been entered in the quite liberal array of stakes offered. Jack Nunnally, Gemmell, Native Son, Cadichon, Creston, Fred Bent, Cigarlighter, Workbox, Sidney F., Little Jane, Modena, Lord Nelson, Neva Lee, Dr. Leggo, J. C. Clem, Martinmas, Cabin and many more racers of well-earned reputation are among the entries, which in part are as follows:

Opening Handicap, 5 1-2 Furlongs, June 27.

Creston, Pimkim, Ellerd, Bannock Bob, Sidney F., Columbia Maid, Moore Johnson, Galvanic, Jack Nunnally, Tom Shaw, Wistaria, La Gloria, Mary F., Harvel, Lyte Knight, Sevenfull, Native Son, Gemmell, Swede Sam, Miss Butte, Combury, Aaron J., Lord Nelson, F. E. Shaw, Glendenning, Little Buttercup, Flying Squadron, Brush Up, Ethel Day, Grasscutter, Raratan, Rosie Dillon—32.

Celebration Handicap, 1 Mile, July 4.

Creston, Northwest, Cigarlighter, Bannock Bob, Sidney F., Columbia Maid, Ampedo, Supreme Court, Jack Nunnally, Neva Lee, J. C. Clem, F. W. Barr, Native Son, Elevation, Martinmas, Mabel Hollander, Cadichon, Fred Bent, Sibari, Mina Gibson, Lois Cavanagh, Raratan, Timothy Wen, Cabin, Gemmell, Swede Sam, Sir Brillar, Nonie—28.

Woodlands Stakes, 1-2 Mile, July 9.

Hazlet, Egotist, Lookout, Miss Worth, Pert, Meadow, Argonaut, Willie Logan, Little Jane, Beaumont, Workbox, The Slicker, Knight Deck, Curfman, Grotto, Theo Phillips, Modena, Minnie, Madonna, Sempesella, Antioch, Duhme, Gretchen G., Osorine, Alice Collins, Sam Shaen, Ray Walsh, Bonfilles, Baleriana, Banthel, Jim Maladay, Black Hand, R. E. McCurdy, Weavette—34.

Anaconda Stakes, 1 1-16 Miles, July 16.

RACING CAREER OF THE MIST.

A good sprinter that is still capable of displaying much of the speed that made her noted when a two-year-old, is the six-year-old mare The Mist, a daughter of Dan Honig's tremendously fast horse Magnet. The Mist was a capital two-year-old that was raced too often and was only unplaced five times out of twenty-five races. She won twelve races and finished first in another in which she was disqualified for fouling Marmont. Her first racing was at Oakland, but much of her two-year-old career was over Chicago tracks. At Harlem she won four purses and was second to John Smulski in the Youngster Stakes. She won two purses at Hawthorne also, but her principal success here was in winning the Lakeside Stakes at Washington Park, in which she defeated La Londe, Regale, Peggy O'Neal, Miss Inez, Intense, Mum and Voltrice, all speedy fillies and winners. Her strenuous two-year-old campaign told its tale and she was of scant use in 1905 and 1906, but she recovered and for the past two years has been a serviceable breadwinner. Her record is as follaws:

The Mist, ch. m, (1902), by Magnet—Tenebrae.

Year.	Age.	Sts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Unp.	Won.
1904	2	25	12	4	4	5	$8,125

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Memphis racing plant, Montgomery Park, has been leased to the Tri-State Fair Association of Tennessee. It is to be improved and used for mixed racing and fair purposes this fall and in the future.

From Lexington, Ky., is wired the news that jockey Madden will ride Mr. Belmont's colt, Norman III., in the Epsom Derby. As the colt is trained by Watson and Madden rides for him, this "news" is probably a fair guess.

Jersey Lightning and Stamina, eligibles from the string of Harry Payne Whitney for the Withers, have been going along nicely of late, but no fast work has been required of either one of them. Their best work was Monday together over the Sheepshead Bay training track, seven furlongs, in 1:32½.

August Belmont's colt, Rostrum, which made its first appearance at Belmont Park Monday last, is much fancied by the eastern critics. He is by Hastings—Lady Rosemary, and a brother to Rosetint, but larger and even better looking. Rosetint was a fine two-year-old in 1900, and was also a chestnut.

Four foals by Handpress, W. P. Magrane's Hanover stallion, are reported at interior points in California, the most promising of which is a colt out of M. D. Miller's Ishtar, a sister to the celebrated Hamburg Belle. Other mares that have given Handpress foals are W. L. Stanfield's Kittie Kelly, George Wentworth's Mocorito and D. Kennedy's Novia.

Algernon Daingerfield, assistant secretary of the Jockey Club, has accepted the invitation of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to act as chief judge at the coming work horse parade. Besides Henry Bergh, father of the society, the men who will assist as judges are Thomas C. Crimmins, Gordon Knox Bell and Cortland Van Rensselaer.

J. D. Millin is not apt to campaign his horses during the summer, but at the close of the Oakland meeting plans to give them a long rest, which he hopes will put them into exceptionally good condition by fall. In the meantime he will devote his time to looking after the affairs connected with his Rancho del Rio establishment, breaking his band of youngsters, of which he has eleven.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

F. P. D., Chicago. The wager was a draw.

Philip S., Chicago. The Mist was out to show.

J. O'B., Chicago. Such a wager would be good if a bookmaker would accept it.

Zeke, Chicago. The straight tickets sold on Special Delivery in race 74867 should have read 16 instead of 6.

F. B. & Co., Toronto, Ont. Man has been in east. Is now here and preparing to resume western business, we believe.

J. G. L., Cincinnati, O. The bet on Meadowbreeze lost. To have won for you the horse would have to run first, second or third.

J. A. P., Chicago. The parlay was void as to Superman, because there was no separate place price against him, and won on the other two horses.

C. M., Chicago. It would have been no trouble for you to have stipulated Belle Kinney to go, in which case you would have had a draw. Also you could have bet on Belle Kinney directly. There is one point in what you say that is significant, and that is that a price against the coupled entry supposed to come from the track was laid. Manifestly this was a fraud, for it is evident that had the odds come from the track there would have been no price against the coupled entry.

Time, 1:10⅕.

Winner—B. g, by Paladin—Silenta (trained by O. E. Ware).

Went to post at 1:44. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Pal, after being forwardly reserved in the early running, drew out in the stretch and won as his rider pleased. Triumphant outbroke the others, set the pace to the stretch, then succumbed quickly to the winner, but held on gamely for second place. J. W. O'Neill, from an inside slow start, steadily improved his position into a fast going third. Sir Brillar, away badly, closed a big gap. Nellie Racine ran in close quarters and was messed about. Prince Frederick, forced back at the start, made up much ground. Nattie Bumppo, nearly left, closed a gap. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Overweights—Nonie, 3 pounds; Kuropatkin, 2.

74889 SECOND RACE—1-2 Mile. (74190—47—2—113.) $400 added. 2-year-olds. Selling. Net value to winner $375.

Winner—B. f, by Resolute II.—Baroness Pepper (trained by W. D. Millard).

Went to post at 2:10. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Bold quickly established a small lead and held it throughout under vigorous riding. Alice Collins, in close quarters in the early running, just failed to get up in a belated stretch rush. Intonation, well up throughout, but pocketed midway of the stretch, finished like a shot. Coppit forced the pace, but tired in the last few strides. Ornate, away badly, closed a big gap and is very good. Matchtulla finished close up after getting away poorly. Armature, nearly left, closed a big gap. Phillistina ran badly and can do much better. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Overweights—Phillistina, 1 pound; Ray Welsh, 1.

Winner—B. f, by Free Knight—Silver Lining (trained by G. Wentworth).

Went to post at 2:34. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Silver Line is in rare form, set the pace throughout under waiting tactics in front and just lasted the journey. Rubinon, suddenly improved, maintained nearest pursuit throughout and was wearing the winner down slowly at the end. Eduardo was always in prominent and game contention and is fresh and extra good. Baron Esher, forwardly placed from the start, finished fast. Joe Coyne, away very badly, closed an immense gap. Ouardi was never dangerous. Nadzu, away poorly, made up ground steadily and is improving. Livius was sore. Elie can do better. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Overweights—Ouardi, 2 pounds; Markie Mayer, 3.

Winner—Br. h, by St. Avonicus—Centella (trained by G. Durker).

Went to post at 2:57. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second easily. Avontellus, after nearest and patient pursuit of Cadichon to the last turn, drew out and won off pulling up. Cadichon made the early running and succumbed readily to the winner, but was an easy second. Spring Ban trailed throughout and loomed up momentarily midway of the stretch, but tired as if short.

Scratched—74837^{2}Cabin, 106.

Winner—B. f, by Woolsthorpe—Frequent (trained by C. L. Snyder).

Went to post at 3:22. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Woolen outbroke the others and was reserved in the middle running, then made good finally in a game finish. John H. drew out prematurely at the half and appeared a certain winner in the stretch, but tired suddenly. Captain Bush, well up throughout, finished a fast going third. Mill Song had a rough journey. Little Joker closed a big gap in the last half. Sir Wesley, away poorly and given a bad ride, finished close up. Kermit was palpably short. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Overweights—Sir Wesley, 3 pounds; Belasco, 1; The Broker, 1; Sahara, 3.

Winner—B. g, by Sorcerer—Tea's Over (trained by W. Cahill).

Went to post at 3:51. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Security, from a flying start, relinquished the lead in the early running to John H. Sheehan and was reserved patiently to the stretch, but finally wore the latter down in a long drive. John H. Sheehan, away poorly and excessively urged into a long lead, tired in the closing strides. May Amelia, well up from the start, finished fastest of all and is improving. Kokomo, prominent for five furlongs, tired as if still short, but is very good. La Londe steadily improved her position from a rear start. Luretta had scant chance. Lord Nelson was sore and away poorly. Glorio probably was short.

Overweights—May Amelia, 2 pounds; Luretta, 1; Glorio, 4; Berryessa, 2; Purse Rose, 1.

Winner—B. f, by Cesarion—Harpy (trained by L. Johnson).

Went to post at 2:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. She Wolf, away fast and showing much the most speed, quickly ran into a long lead and was never in danger. Transform, also favored at the start, followed the winner close up and outstayed Tannie in the closing drive. Tannie saved ground all the way and finished gamely, but was not good enough. Solicitor was shuffled back soon after the start and was forced to go wide into the stretch. McDale was well up for the first half. Sainward ran fairly well.

†Mutuel field. *Auction field. Time, 23⅘, 48⅗, 1:15⅕.

Winner—B. h, by Orlando—Hanna Bell (trained by J. Everman).

Went to post at 3:18. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Stoner Hill, away forwardly, followed the leaders closely to the stretch turn, where, under sharp urging, he took the lead and won under pressure. Meadowbreeze, going wide most of the way, closed a big gap steadily and finished with a rush. Dandy Dancer, showing much speed, wore Boserrian down after going a quarter and set the pace fast, but tired in the final furlong. Beth Goodwin, showing sudden improvement, ran a good race and finished gamely. Palamon came from a long way back in the last half and finished resolutely. Boserrian showed speed, but tired after going a half. Birdslayer ran poorly and can do much better. Potter was in a jam most of the way. Lignando had a rough trip. Ralbert ran poorly. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Overweights—Beth Goodwin, 1½ pounds; Toplofty, 1; Frank Bird, 2½.

74884 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. (74830—1:39—5—106.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $300.

†Mutuel field. *Auction field. Time, 25, 50⅗, 1:16⅘, 1:43.

Winner—B. g, by Bonnie Joe—Wampezo (trained by W. Stueve).

Went to post at 4:07. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Bonebrake gained steadily from a slow start and, wearing Canopian down in the final furlong, came away in the stretch with a rush. Canopian, away fast and showing the most speed, set a fast pace for the first three-quarters, but tired and had to do his best to outstay Blaze o'Light. The latter ran a good race and was gaining stoutly at the end. Hazel Patch, away in a tangle, closed a big gap and, with a better send-off, would have been dangerous. Labor ran well. George Bailey had a rough trip. Viperine quit badly after going a half. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Time, 4:15.

Winner—B. g, by The Tartar—Milanola (trained by J. Collins).

Went to post at 4:43. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second the same. McAllister trailed Don Jolly to the seventh jump, where the latter fell, then only cantered after going over the ninth jump. Bell-the-Cat was going well when he fell at the ninth jump. Don Jolly was remounted and taken over the course for second money. Bell-the-Cat was also remounted and finished inside the time limit for third money.

Winner—Br. h, by The Commoner or Tithonus—Tom Boy (trained by C. E. Patterson).

Went to post at 5:25. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Kercheval was bothered by the cuppy going and badly outpaced for a half, but moved up gamely under a hard ride and gained gradually when he secured firm footing and got up in the last stride. Lotus Eater ran a good race and, after wearing Zal down, appeared a certain winner, but tired in the closing strides. Lens had no mishaps, ran in closest pursuit of Zal to the stretch and finished gamely, but tiring. The Minks was tangled in the barrier at the start and carried it with him for a half and would have been a sharp factor but for the mishap. Evelyn S. tired after going a half. Zal showed the most speed and set the pace fast to the stretch, but failed to stay the route.

Winner—B. c, by Hyphen—Hostile (trained by T. Kiley).

Went to post at 6:04. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Hostile Hyphen was restrained to the stretch turn, where he wore Cymbal down with a rush and, finishing fast, won going away. Cymbal, showing much speed, set a fast pace in the middle running, but tired near the end. Washakie was a prominent contender for three-quarters, but tired slightly in the stretch drive. Ed Kane closed a big gap from a slow beginning. The Thorn ran fairly well. Masson quit badly after going a good half. Ardis showed speed, but tired in the last half. Synchronized ran poorly. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Overweights—Hostile Hyphen, 2 pounds; Cymbal, 5; Ed Kane, 3; The Thorn, 2; Synchronized, 4.

Winner—B. g, by Ben Strome—Rose Leaf (trained by F. D. Weir).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won cantering; second and third easily. Roseben found the going to his liking, outfooted his opponents from the start and was only cantering at the end. Aletheuo ran well and was easily best of the others, but never threatened the winner. King Sol outfinished Adriana after a long drive. Adriana ran as though she did not like the going, showed speed in the middle running, but was tiring badly at the end.

Time, 54.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ingoldsby—Miss Modish (trained by A. J. Goldsborough).

Went to post at 3:00. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second and third driving. Uncle Jim proved himself a high-class mud runner and, going into the lead quickly, set the pace fast and won eased up. Sir Martin, in close quarters at the start, ran well and finished resolutely in the final drive. Top Note tired at the end after racing close to the leaders throughout. Turncoat was cut off and knocked back at the start by Ogemah, but closed a big gap and will surely improve. Edward was never a serious contender. Right Sort can do better.

Winner—Ch. c, by Sir Hampton—Gladeyes (trained by W. Hurley).

Went to post at 3:57. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second and third driving. Blacksheep was favored by the going and, running into a big lead, held it easily and won cantering. Obert ran well, finished gamely in a long drive and was as easily second best. Banyah, off badly, closed a big gap and ran in vastly improved form. Bonnie Alan showed early speed and ran well to the stretch, but was tiring at the end. Frizette, sluggish in the early running, was forced to race on the outside and closed a big gap in the stretch. Complete and Don Ottario quit badly. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Scratched—74373 Aimee C., 101; (74809)Bellwether, 111; 74876^{3}King Sol, 106; 74772 Black Oak, 106; 74736 Heknows, 103; 74845 Tenancy by Courtesy, 106; 74822 Whip Top, 101.

Winner—Ch. g, by Dieudonne—Carness (trained by D. Woodford).

Went to post at 4:25. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Berkeley set a fast pace and won all the way, but at the end was bearing out and carried Colonel Jack a trifle wide. Colonel Jack was always in closest pursuit and ran on the outside of the winner all the way. Salvidere was sluggish in the early running and was taken wide on the turn, then saved ground in the stretch and finished resolutely, but could never reach the first two. Tourenne, away well, dropped out of contention early. Beaucoup showed early speed, but quit in the stretch as if short.

Winner—Ch. g, by Kingston—Pastorella (trained by W. A. McKinney).

Went to post at 4:55. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Masaniello, off fast, opened a big lead early, but tired and just lasted long enough in a long stretch drive. Chantilly ran a good race and appeared the winner when a furlong from home, but was tiring badly right at the end. Animus ran in much improved form, but was favored by the going. Lord Stanhope ran his race. Samuel H. Harris was knocked back when going to the first turn, then raced around on the outside and finished gamely. King Cole showed early speed. Rio Grande, after being off well, was forced to the rail and had to be pulled up, knocking him completely out of all chance. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Scratched—74773^{2}Bad News, 97; 74733^{2}Pretension, 103; 74827^{3}Tommy Waddell, 100; 74791^{3}Park Row, 103; 74520 Teacress, 95.

The figures under "Rec." in above entries show the best time made by the horse at the distance since January 1, 1906. This time is not necessarily made by a winner. It may be the estimated time of a losing performance.

LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED TODAY.

The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner.

The figures under "Rec." in above entries show the best time made by the horse at the distance since January 1, 1906. This time is not necessarily made by a winner. It may be the estimated time of a losing performance.

LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED TODAY.

The "odds" figures in connection with horses at the present Louisville meeting are the calculations made by Daily Racing Form and based on mutual pools. They are published in such form for the mere purpose of mechanical uniformity.
